DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS.

"Mack" Talks with Him Two Hours and a Half.

[Correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1, 1868.

A TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT.

Taking advantage of the general clearing out of Congressional dignitaries which had taken place since the adjournment on the 20th, and of a recent snow storm, which I felt assured would compel the few rheumatic members and gouty Senators who remained at the capital to stay in their respective boarding-houses for a few days, and thus give a reasonable chance to an unofficial caller in pursuit of an interview with the President, I made a visit to the White House, last evening for the purpose of a brief political conversation with his Excellency. After a few minutes' waiting in the ante-room I was ushered into the Executive presence, where I remained for two hours and a half. From what passed I select the following items of general interest:

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

"I believed then and I believe now that there is a majority in the country—and a very large majority—opposed to the policy of the Radical party; but many who want to oppose that policy cannot be made to do it by joining the Democratic party. They will not make accessions to the Democratic party or fall into the rear of it under the leadership of such men as Vallandigham. The October elections in Ohio showed this. Negro suffrage, which represented the Radical policy, was beaten by 50,000, and yet Gen. Hayes was elected Governor. Well, now, if the people were as much in favor of the Democratic party as they are opposed to Radicalism, they would have given 50,000 majority for Thurman.'

ORD REMOVED BY GRANT.

I told Mr. Johnson that I understood General Grant to have been the first to suggest the removal of Ord, and he replied that such was the fact. He (Johnson) had not attempted to interfere against Ord, but let Grant have his own way.

THE MOSES BUSINESS.

"They talk a great deal," said Mr. Johnson, "about this 'Moses' business, as if I had said something then that I had never said before, and have repudiated since. The fact is, there is nothing in that speech inconsistent with my previous record, or with what I have said or done since."

"Because I wanted the negroes to be free and enjoy their rights, it does not follow that I want them to be the ruling class in eleven States. Reconstruction of that kind after its accomplishment, brings no peace to the country. It plants in every State the elements of discord and dissolution, that will be felt sooner or later."

MR. LINCOLN'S POLICY—WHAT HE SAID HIMSELF.

"As to an extra session for the purpose of settling the reconstruction question," said the President, "Secretary Welles will tell you that Mr. Lincoln said to him one day that he had no idea of calling it; but that they (meaning the Administration) had better go to work and get it all out of the way before Congress met to fuss about it."

SOMETHING ABOUT STANTON.

One of Stanton's last suggestions in the Cabinet, he said, was to increase the regular army to its maximum—which would put it at nearly 100,000 men; also, to have an order issued making desertion punishable by death. Stanton came in one day with a proposition embracing these two points, reduced to writing. The President expressed his astonishment, and inquired if Gen. Grant approved such a thing. Stanton replied in the affirmative. "Well," said the President, "I am opposed to each of the propositions, and especially to both of them." Stanton went on to say the army was deserting in platoons, and nothing but a rigorous enforcement of the death-penalty would stop it. The President said he never heard of such a thing as shooting for desertion in time of peace. Stanton replied that there was a law on the statute books now authorizing it, but he couldn't find it.

The President said the country would be unable to bear the expense of the army filled to the maximum. It would be a hundred millions a year; but Stanton insisted that it ought to be done. When General Grant came into the Cabinet the President asked him if he had approved of Stanton's propositions, and he replied that he had not—that he hadn't seen them, and knew nothing of them. "I could never approve of a thing like that," said Mr. Johnson, "to bankrupt the North in order to raise a big army to overrun the South.—There's too much of an army now, and it's too expensive already."

It will be observed from the above that the American Carnot had a back-action idea in view, which was to recruit the army up to the maximum first, and then shoot it down to the minimum. The original Carnot never equalled that in brilliancy of conception.

A GOOD JOKE ON GRANT.

This is as good a place as any to tell what I conceive to be a good joke at Grant's expense, perpetrated by so grave a person as Attorney General Stanbery. My authority is unquestionable, as, in fact, it always is. Soon after Grant's accession to the Cabinet he brought up a proposition in Cabinet meeting, in regard to the abolition of whipping, as a punishment for crime, in the South. All the Cabinet officers agreed on that point, but they differed as to the propriety of interfering against the penal laws of a State. Such punishment was being gradually abolished anyhow, and would soon disappear entirely. But Grant believed that something ought to be done by the army to prevent its continuance. It was so barbarous that it ought not to be tolerated a day longer. Stanbery glanced at the General and said, in a quiet way: "I believe you still buck and gag men and tie them up by the thumbs in the army, within a mile of this house, don't you?"

"Yes," the General said, "that had to be done some times."

"Well, it seems to me," replied Stanbery, "that it's a little worse to buck and gag a man for getting tipsy than to whip him for larceny. If you had to choose, would you rather be whipped or gagged?"

The General had to acknowledge that as between the two he'd take the whipping—and he postponed further remarks on the barbarism of the whipping-post to some future meeting. MACK.

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods convenient to the House and Mill.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } EDITORS. SEATON GALES,

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1868.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE SO CALLED CONVENTION.

This body meets on the 14th. inst., (next Tuesday,) in the Capitol. The like of it has never before met, in North Carolina, to tamper with our State Constitution. It is called a "Constitutional" Convention,—not because it is a Constitutional body, for, in this respect, it is wholly unauthorized and unconstitutional,—but because it is to make a Constitution. It derives its authority solely from the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, which, as Mr. Stevens says, are "outside of the Constitution," and contrary thereto. The Acts are enforced by military rule, in a time of peace, upon the people and States of the South. They are, therefore, to be observed as law, until they are declared null by the constitutional authority of the country.

There is some reason to hope that, in a short time, the Supreme Court of the United States will declare the entire reconstruction proceedings of Congress unconstitutional, revolutionary and null. No lawyer can entertain a contrary opinion. Even admitting the position of Mr. Stevens and of the extreme Radicals,—all of whom, whether North or South, must stand upon the secession platform, that the Southern States, by the rebellion, broke up the Union and are now conquered States, and without governments,—yet it will be impossible for them to show that Congress has the right, under the Constitution, to adopt its reconstruction policy. It can only claim to act in a revolutionary aspect, without right under the Constitution, since all the powers of Congress, whatever they may be, are derived solely from the Constitution of the United States.

The public will be curious to examine the proceedings of this body daily. It is our purpose to give a fair and important report of its proceedings. We will not, knowingly, misrepresent any of its actors, or attribute to them what their history and acts do not warrant. Much of its proceedings will doubtless be rare, racy and amusing, which we shall aim to chronicle as truthfully as possible.

The violence, bitterness and vindictiveness of its proceedings we shall not endeavor to restrain. The "Convention" is intensely Radical, and its acts, we hope, will be equally as intense. We challenge it to do its worst, without the fear of God, or man, or Congress, before it. Let us have a full development of the designs and purposes of Radicalism, if, indeed, the party has yet arisen to its full height of madness. Having no interest in common with the white race—no sympathies, at least, for Southern white men—no conscience to be disturbed by the ghosts of injured, insulted and downtrodden innocence and virtue,—let it out-Herod-Herod in its extravagance, and folly, and violence!

ALABAMA.—It is said that members of Congress have been making efforts to have the Convention re-assemble, so as to make the new constitution less obnoxious, and thus secure its ratification. The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail says the Radical candidate for Governor has been to Washington, where he was very severely denounced by the Radical leaders for preparing a constitution so obnoxious to the Radical taste, and was advised to go home and undo the work. The Mail seems to think that there is a probability that the Convention will come together again. Meanwhile, the people throughout the State, opposed to the ratification of the so-called constitution to be submitted to the people on the 4th. of February, are organizing Conservative clubs and preparing to defeat the bogus document at the polls.

THE VICKSBURG (Miss.) Herald prints the result of the election vote, and shows that if all those opposed to a Convention had declined to vote, the Convention would have been carried by only seventy-five majority. The Herald declares that if the Constitutional Union men had refused to vote and worked energetically, the Radical policy would have been utterly defeated.

NOMINATION.—The Newark, (N. J.) Journal nominates Andrew Johnson as the Democratic candidate for the next President. The Journal intimates that no man in the country has striven so much for the restoration of the Union as Mr. Johnson.

For the Sentinel

Messrs. Editors:—A gentleman, whom I regarded as entirely reliable, said in my presence, a me time ago, that Gen. Abbott would be the President of the "loyal" State Convention, which is to assemble in this City next week, and that Colonel Heaton would "run the machine." I suggested that he was only jesting; but he assured me that he was in earnest and that I would see by and by. He said, further, that Heaton wanted to be President, but Abbott would not consent to this, as Heaton was better calculated to "run the machine" on the floor.

Well, I believe now the gentlemen was correct; he either spoke ex cathedra or guessed correctly, for I see that Mr. Colonel Heaton, Gen. Abbott and Gen. Lafflin, all Northern delegates to the Convention, have arrived several days in advance of the assembling of that body, for the purpose, I conjecture, of preparing a programme, to secure the election of themselves and other Northern delegates to the prominent and paying offices of the Convention.

Will the native radical delegates, white and black, submit to this presumption and manifest purpose, on the part of these adventurers, who could not get into office at home, and to their intention, as indicated by their acts, to drive and domineer over the ignorant white "Southern poor trash and negroes," and "run the machine," generally? We will see how much spirit the native white and black radicals have. I think them an abject, toadying set, for the most part, but I may possibly do some of them unintentional injustice. That these Nothern men, who could not get into pieces of dignity, and profit, and importance, at home, have come here to get into office, and "run the machine," to use a Yankee slang phrase, and are, in fact, real radical Republican emissaries, is clear to the mind of the commonest observer.

Who does not remember the disgusting officiousness of Abbott and Heaton, at the Radical Tucker Hall Convention of September last? They "ran the machine" on that occasion with a black gusto, monopolized the offices, and were so outrageously presumptuous, and drove the negro part of the Convention with such resistless and furious, and radical success, that John Pool, Robert P. Dick, Daniel R. Goodloe and David Carter just had to quit the concern, and they actually published a long and able address to the people of the State, calling the attention of the native population, Republicans and all, to the startling fact, that the object of the Northern adventurers was to rule through and by means of the negroes and negro supremacy. Pool, Dick, Goodloe and Carter exhibited some spirit of self-respect and State pride, and were bold enough to assert the right and the ability of native Radicals to "run the machine." What will they do now? I fear the worst; men soon learn to fawn at the feet of successful power, however contemptible and ridiculous.

I am anxious to see what the white native Radical delegates will do in the matter of officers of the Convention; the negro Radicals are "set." I don't doubt, for the General!! and the Colonel!! The Radicals have not much and wretched material to make officers out of. Yes, that is true; but they could surely find some native timber that would make some sort of a President. Possibly, they may try their hand on their new ally, Col. Rodman, who has brains, but this is not probable; I'll bet on the Yankee delegates winning the race.

"WATCH AND WAIT."

We had heard, before our correspondent informed us, that several of the delegates from abroad had already arrived, and that Gen. Abbott, Col. Heaton, and Gen. Lafflin, of Pitt, were among them. We have not heard it alleged that Gen. Lafflin has any aspirations for office; and, by the way, our informant, the other day, in reference to the Sheriff of Pitt, misled us in stating that the General was the Sheriff of that county.—Our cotemporary, the Wilmington Journal, corrected us, by stating that Mr. Rich, the other delegate to the Convention from Pitt, is the Sheriff.

There may be other reasons, to prompt some of the members of the Convention to be in Raleigh, several days before it assembles, than a desire to electioneer for office, but it appears to be a custom, with candidates desiring office, to be on the ground in advance, in order to form the acquaintance of each member, as they arrive, and to prevent the committal of the members to their opponents.

So far as we are politically concerned, we would not give a groat to name every officer of the "machine." We would somewhat prefer, that all the offices could be filled by men from the North, who have not been identified with North Carolina, and who never can be, unless she is utterly doomed to Africanization. The "Convention," itself, is not a North Carolina institution—will not seek the interests of North Carolina, and can never be identified, in character or purpose, with North Carolina, in the feelings and memories of her true people. The Radicals of that body will make a record which can only excite the scorn and the contempt of all true North Carolinians and their children's children to the latest generation. What they will do, or what officers they will elect, is a matter of no interest to Conservative North Carolinians.

The object of our correspondent, to excite among the members of that body the feelings of native North Carolinians, we judge, will avail nothing. The pure, unadulterated blood of a North Carolinian finds too much obstruction in the veins of a Radical, to be found capable of excitement among the Radicals of that body. It will suit their purposes better to put adventurers in the State forward, and in this they will show some sense, if it be not, also, good policy.

GEORGIA.—In this State, the opposition to the action of the Convention has already commenced. In very many counties meetings have been held in response to the Macon resolutions, and Conservative clubs are being organized in every section of the State. In Columbus, last week, there was a large and enthusiastic gathering and a club organized. The Georgia newspapers are urging upon General Meade to order the publication of the vote of the several counties of the State upon the question of calling the Convention. The vote has never been made public and there are some suspicions concerning its concealment. Swayne and Pope had a lively quarrel before their removal. Swayne refused to disband the armed negro companies and Pope ordered their disbandment. The two commanders quarrelled, but the removal order set all things right.

SPECIMEN PROCEEDINGS.—We take, from the Richmond Dispatch, the following pungent report of proceedings, a few days since, in the Virginia Convention, assembled, by order of Congress, to make a Constitution for that noble old State. When the gentlemen from Bertie and Halifax, unless they are muzzled, catch the Speaker's eye, in our Convention, (so called,) we shall doubtless have equally as dignified and statesman-like an episode:

"Dr. Bayne stated that God had made all human creatures out of dirt, and red dirt at dat; and he had poured wind into dere orifices.

Mr. Milbourne (Radical) asked if the members were convened to hear sermons or make a constitution.

Dr. Bayne took no notice of the member, but continued his remarks. He acknowledged that God had made men, women and children, out of de same kind of mud, but yet man covered the whole.

In the midst of the confusion which again arose, Holmes got up and said: "Mister President, if this is the House o' Delegates, I moves we go on; but ef it is a photographer's gallery, I moves we adjourn. Mr. Chairman, I moves that you look at the papers in that man's hand at your side," (pointing to the Agent of the Associated Press).

[A reporter informed Holmes that he was mistaken in his man. To which he replied: "I got him! I got him! I know who he is. That's the man whar draws for the Southern Opinion."]

After more squabbling, the first section was adopted as reported by the Committee.

On motion of Mr. Curtis, the Committee then rose.

A dozen motions followed: among them three or four to adjourn.

Jones (negro) contended that a motion to adjourn took the precedence. He was ordered peremptorily to take his seat; and, after further confusion, the Convention adjourned."

RESOLUTIONS have been introduced into both Houses of the Ohio Legislature, to rescind Ohio's ratification of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which deprives States who refuse negro suffrage the right to count them in fixing Congressional apportionment. The fact is certain that the rescinding resolution will pass.

GOVERNORS JENKINS, of Georgia, and Patton, of Alabama, were in conference with Gen. Meade, at Atlanta, on the 7th.

STATE NEWS.

—A letter in the Advertiser, of yesterday, announces the destruction, by fire, of the splendid brick jail at Oxford, on Wednesday. The fire started on the inside. There were two prisoners in the jail,—Henderson Cooper, who was confined on a charge of rape, and another negro, who was in the same cell and charged with stealing. The cause of the fire is said to be unknown, and it is further stated that an impression prevails that the two prisoners were burned to death, though no traces of bones have been discovered. We think it much more probable that the prisoners, themselves, are the incendiaries, and that they have thus effected their escape.

—April Lesane, colored, charged with leading a band of armed negroes in resisting the sheriff of Bladen, N. C., in the execution of his duty, was sentenced by a military Commission to six months hard labor, but General Canby commuted it to four and fixed on Fort Macon as the place of service.

—A meeting was held in Wilmington on the 8th., to consult relative to the organization of an Immigration Society. Henry Nutt, Esq., presided, and addresses were made by the Chairman, Col. E. D. Hall, Gen. Ransom, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, and Messrs. Froelich, Strauss and Bulle. A Committee of seven gentlemen was appointed to take the whole subject into consideration.

—The Newbern Journal of Commerce records further outrages in that afflicted section of the State. It says:

"On the evening of the 24th. of December, the people of that part of Greene County near Fountain Hill were much excited and alarmed to learn that a band of robbers was in the neighborhood, armed and prepared for robbery and murder.

Two negroes, John Dixon and Hardy Coward, gave information concerning these desperadoes, and with others commenced operations to arrest them. In a short time Needham Speight, alias Needham Evans, and John Dunn, alias Custis, alias John Miller, were overtaken and arrested. These negroes had three double barrel guns; two pistols and one dirk; three sacks of clothes; ladies' fine dresses; ladies' underclothing; pants, vests, shoes, and a decanter of old peach brandy, &c.

The next morning, Christmas, the place in the woods where they had stopped, the day before, was discovered. Here were found the notes, bonds, bank stocks, &c., of Willis Brierly, whom they had robbed and murdered the day before. These had been thrown away as worthless. These scoundrels confessed that they shot Brierly; robbed and beat Taylor; shot C. M. A. Griffin; and that it was their intention to rob the Stores at Fountain Hill, and also F. M. Pittman's about a mile distant, the very night they were arrested. Lewis Curtis, alias Lewis Cogdel, was with Evans and Miller, but had left them the morning before they were arrested at night, to go to Kinston after more to help them to rob Fountain Hill.

We were more than pleased to learn, at Kinston, that a large number of arrests had been made of parties implicated in these outrages, and that about thirty were safely lodged in the Jails at Greenville, Snow Hill, and Kinston."

—Charles T. Haigh, Esq., a venerable and prominent citizen of Fayetteville, died on the 8th inst. Mr. H. was noted for his purity of character and goodness of heart; his public spirit and devotion to the interests of the community in which he lived.—Few better men are left behind him.

Mr. Akin, living near Montgomery, finding a negro in possession of a fine mule, which he had just bought at a suspiciously low price from another negro, who had evidently stolen it, caused him to come to town with him. On arriving near the capitol, where the negro Convention was in session, a crowd of negroes surrounded Mr. A., took away the mule, released the negro, and told Akin to "leave for his life." The negro then mounted the mule and left town.

THE STATE NIGGER CONVENTION.—This body, as before stated, will be called together on next Tuesday. It has been suggested by a Virginia cotemporary, that the proceedings be opened by reading Holden's poem on the death of Calhoun. We trust that some member will so move.—Wilson Carolinian.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—I will take occasion to say, through your columns, that in an interview, to-day, with Mr. Everitt, the English agent for investing capital in American securities, especially Southern, his visit here is explained to be to seek safe investments only, and, when so found, at moderate interest. It matters not whether the loan be to individuals, or corporations, so it is secure.

He suggests, if it could be made clear to English lenders that no manipulation of legislature schemers would ever endanger such bonds, millions could be had as permanent investments. But that since Mississippi repudiated her bonds and will not restore herself to honor by re-assuming those liabilities, it operates against the other States, and requires great caution upon the part of lenders in future.

He is not disposed to be over nice in his requirements, but merely wishes good security. Indeed, he took occasion to say, that the only reason for British loans seeking the most remote and out of the way borrowers, as even South American locations, was that of North American repudiation tendencies. Capitalists steered widely of so uncertain a debtor. But recent English inactivity in the loan market, has led to this search for any thing really worthy of attention.

I do not know that I trespass on the privacy of the interview, in mentioning these things, as, also, his great admiration of American resources—seemingly unequalled by other portions of the world—and that he will start South the 1st. February for inspection. He is in communication with such men as Peter Cooper, Esq., and will act judiciously. As to this, he is a gentleman of experience, acquainted with public works as to their utility and probable paying qualities. Yet he has money and it can be had by satisfying him that no advantage will be taken.

My impression is that especially the Chatham Railroad may find aid, and he will carry a letter of introduction to the gentlemanly and most worthy President of that company, as, also, to your Governor, doubtless equally desiring the advancement of the State's interest. He will also be introduced to the President of the Central Road.

Let me add, in conclusion, that as such an opportunity may not soon again occur of procuring capital on cheap terms, endeavor to avail yourselves of it. Millions can be had by making it a safe thing, and a fair exhibition of the integrity of North Carolina, and of the state and present condition of these several works needing help, will, I trust, be sufficient. I have tried to show the superiority of North Carolina over all other States in resources and honor, and I hope favorably, and unless a spirit of repudiation gets abroad among her people what the gentleman has heard from me is true. If you all imitate Mississippi and disregard all claims of honor or common decency, then I have not only talked in vain, but worse, rather acted the part of praising an unreliable party,—not a desirable position. But North Carolina will not so act; and when I was told to-day, that $20,000,000 could be had for the asking on an honorable bargain unrevokable, I never had the idea of the need of prompt honor among a people or nation so clearly developed. I really believe, if North Carolina cannot satisfy as to this requirement, no other State need try.

Respectfully,

L. P. OLDS.

SENATOR HOWARD'S REPORT ON THE SUSPENSION OF SECRETARY STANTON.

We publish this morning the material points of Senator Howard's report on the reasons submitted to the Senate by President Johnson for his suspension of Mr. E. M. Stanton as Secretary of War. Mr. Howard fully justifies the refusal of Mr Stanton to resign at the President's request, on the ground of "grave public considerations," and charges the suspension to a factious spirits of hostility to the Reconstruction laws of Congress on the part of the President. Mr. Johnson is further accused of garbling a certain telegraph dispatch of Gen. Baird touching the New Orleans riot, and of suppressing certain important facts in reference to said riot; and his complaint upon this score against the Secretary of War, Mr. Howard says, "has not even the merit of plausibility." Instead of heeding the information of General Baird's dispatch, Mr. Johnson, it is further charged, was "kept fully informed by Rozier, Voorhees, Herron and others (implicated in the riot) of what was going on, and seems to have concealed it designedly from the Secretary."

In conclusion, the committee recommend the passage of a resolution, and that it be certified to the President, to wit:—"That having considered the evidence and reasons given by the President in his Message of the 16th of December, 1867, for the suspension of Edwin M. Stanton from the office of Secretary of War, the Senate do not concur in such suspension"—which brings the issue to a decisive test, one way or the other, on the merits of the Tenure of Office law. Mr. Johnson, in simply suspending Stanton, instead of making a removal, and in giving his reasons to the Senate for the suspension, has complied with the terms of the law relating to the tenure of office. But this law further declares that unless the Senate shall concur in the President's reasons for any suspension under the law made in the recess of Congress, the officer concerned shall be re-instated in his office; and this is the point to which this resolution of the Senate will bring Mr. Johnson.

Assuming that the resolution will be passed, will Mr. Stanton be re-instated? No, according to our information; for Mr. Johnson will refuse to recognize Mr. Stanton on applying for restoration, and will probably submit his constitutional reasons to the Senate for this course. What then? Mr. Stanton must then retire from the field or carry up his case to the Supreme Court for a decision on the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office law—a decision which Mr. Johnson, it is said, desires to obtain. Mr. Stanton, however, may relieve the Senate from the danger of a judgment against the law, by declining to press his claim. In either event, we suspect the conclusion will be another victory for Andrew Johnson.—N. Y. Herald.

MRS. ALICE WILSON, an equestrienne attached to John Robinson's circus, fell overboard from the Steamer Laura, on its passage from Mobile to New Orleans, on Sunday afternoon, near Grant's Pass, and was drowned. Every effort possible to rescue the lady was made, but to no purpose. Mrs. Wilson, had just previous to the occurrence, lost overboard a very valuable diamond pin. It was supposed that she was looking over the side of the vessel, and, becoming dizzy, tumbled into the sea.

JOHN H. SURRATT.—This individual, who appears to be entirely forgotten since the late trial, is still in confinement at the city jail. He spends his time in reading, writing, etc., and appears to be confident of proving his entire innocence, if tried again. Yesterday his brother, sister, and two clergymen, visited him. He is excellent health and good spirits.—Wash. Chronicle.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

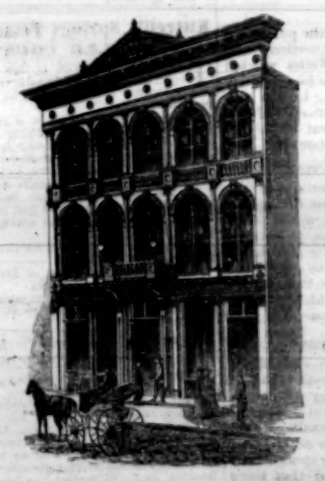
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION, HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

Has paid 15,000 Members, and

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 14th, of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jonathan Worth, Trustee, will sell, at public auction, in Ashboro, on the 8th. prox, a valuable tract of land, thought to contain a valuable gold mine.

A Splendid lot of Valentines: Jas. H. Enniss, at the North Carolina Bookstore.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society: Hutchison, Burroughs & Co., Charlotte.—The advantages of this responsible Association are fully set forth in the advertisement.

Carte Blanche Champagne: W. H. Jones & Co.

Virginia Boot and Shoe Polish: W. H. Jones & Co.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Archy Cawthorn, arrested for intoxication on the street, was lodged in the guard house.

William Watson, Co. A., 8th. U. S. Infantry, arrested for being in the city without a pass, was lodged in the guard house and turned over to the military authorities.

THE DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT, LAST NIGHT.—The exhibition by our Thespian Corps, last evening, was very well attended, and passed off most creditably. The Drama of Rip Van Winkle was repeated for the third time, and was rendered, by all the impersonators, in a manner that almost defies criticism. To a stranger, it would appear really remarkable that there should be, in our little City, so much genuine histrionic talent. Without intending to draw any invidious distinction, we must say that Maj. Manly's rendition of the leading character, Old Rip, is so admirable as to be well nigh perfect.

The Pantomime, by a portion of the Deaf Mutes from the State Institution, was excellently performed, exhibiting a remarkable appreciation of the spirit of the play and much intelligence, as well as humor. Under the tutelage of Mr. Palmer, the Principal, and his Assistants, these unfortunates evidently enjoy advantages which must rejoice every humane heart.

The farce was a side-splitter, and rendered with a gusto and drollery that were inimitable. Tucker Hall has rarely resounded to such shouts of laughter or been the scene of more merriment than during its performance. That "mischievous nigger" was simply irresistible.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the City Gen. M. W. Ransom, of Northampton. He is stopping at the Yarborough.

The Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court has also arrived. The Court meets on Monday.

ARRIVAL OF DELEGATES.—Messrs. Laflin and Rich, delegates to the "mongrel" from Pitt, Messrs. Heaton and Sweet, from Craven, and Abbott, from New Hanover, have arrived and are at the Yarborough House. Galloway, negro delegate from New Hanover, is also here. It is somewhat significant that the first five white arrivals are Northern men.

THE PRINTER.—A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch speaks of having met a printer, who had, for fourteen years, been engaged upon a morning Philadelphia paper, "where he never left work until 3 o'clock in the night, and did not breakfast until 12 o'clock in the day." The writer adds: "He informed us that he was worn out. If his be a specimen of life in the printing-office, the world can never reward the printer."

People, generally, have but little idea of the wear and tear of body and mind that attend the issue of a daily paper, that makes any pretensions to enterprise. As they open it, at the cosy breakfast table, and hastily run over its contents, they little imagine the amount of labor that has been bestowed upon it, and how much of hard work, steady thought, toilsome care, have been expended in providing them with a few moments entertainment. To say nothing, for instance, of our own unremitting Editorial labors, our printers rarely quit work before 12 or 1 o'clock, at night, and the next morning, bright and early, they are again at their posts. There is no more industrious, worthy,—and, we may add, intelligent—men in the community, than the Printers.

THE LAND WE LOVE, for January 1868.—This sterling Journal came to us on the heel of the holidays and we have given it only a glance. As pertinent to the occasion, we selected for perusal the stories, poems and jokes. When we become more solemn, we intend to grapple with the heavier articles. The instalments of the stories in serials preserve their interest, as they jog along to the end of their journey.

There is more than the usual amount of deep drollery in the "Editorial," which is sure to make us laugh inwardly before we get through. The commotion is quite gentle at first, and creeps along among the risibles by slow degrees; but the explosion is sure to come, by and bye.

The Haversack rations are rather scanty—and the Editor-General calls lustily on the "generous boys in gray," to "send up their usual monthly contributions," and not let their "old comrade in arms starve to death." There are other hungry ones, who join in the prayer. There be multitudinous "Olivers asking for more." So fill up the old Haversack! ye generous boys in grey.

There are several poems,—we think of superior order. "We will Wait," by Fanny Downing, is published only in part. About half of it appears in this No.—and more's the pity. We suppose the remainder will come in the next. We were allowed to read this poem in manuscript some months ago, and regard it as the author's very best. But it needs to be read as an unit to appreciate its merits. The poem is the pensive musing of a heart, pure and loving, and almost broken, while

"The snow has wrapped the earth as in a mantle
And midnight winds are moaning low and deep."

Those who remember the soul-stirring "Dixie," "Memorial Flowers," that majestic lyric "Sic Semper Tyrannis," the classical "Cupid and Psyche" and the "gay and festive" story of "Pluto" and Minthe, so eminently suggestive of juleps and jollification, will be slow to believe that this can be better than all. But we think that, as a poem of deep passion, elaborated with exquisite skill, it will certainly carry the palm.

There is a long article on "grape culture" by the Hon. H. W. Ravenel, which we would read, and study, too, if we owned enough of terra firma to plant us a vineyard. Our more fortunate friends are urged to peruse it, as everything from that source, and, we may add, on that subject, is worthy of their careful attention. And whoever can, by all means, should subscribe to the Land We Love.

RELIEVED.—Gen. Canby has relieved Gen. Miles of command of his regiment, Fortieth Infantry, and of the post of Goldsboro, N. C., and assigned thereto Gen. Hinks.

REWARD OFFERED.—Gov. Worth has offerd a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Rufus Whitaker, (colored,) who killed Louis Burt, (colored,) in this county, recently.

THE PRESIDENT VINDICATED.—A Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says that the opinion is gainning ground there that the President has been "underrated." It is by no means so fashionable as it was a year ago to denounce him as utterly incompetent and powerless. We think it not at all unlikely that this mistake has been made. President Johnson's messages and other state papers will compare favorably, in point of ability, force, and effectiveness, with those of any President we have ever had; and the steady determination with which he has adhered to his original policy is beginning to have an effect even upon those who dissent most widely from it.—New York Times.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE SNUBBED BY A RADICAL GOVERNOR.—Governor Cox, of Ohio, in his message to the Legislature, says as to negro suffrage:

"As the question is one which seems to me to be chiefly important in relation to national rather than State policy, I shall refrain from discussing it, and the more willingly now that the progress of events has only strengthened the conviction I have heretofore made public in regard to it."

Governor Cox was a General in the Union army, and as such studied the negro character, and came to the conclusion that they are not fit to be voters. He wrote a long letter to the people of Ohio when he became a candidate for Governor, in which he enforced this view with much power of argument and by reference to facts. He now, as the Republican Governor of a Northern State, declares, in his official character, that the progress of events has only strengthened this conviction.

CHASE VS. GRANT.—We are satisfied, says the New-York Herald, that with all the professions among the Radicals of faith in Grant, they are working their party machinery to crowd him out. Nor do we think that it would be safe to build upon the nomination of Grant by the Republican National Convention as a foregone conclusion. The machinery of the party is in the hands of Chase and his Radical faction.

The Democratic State Central Committee of Arkansas have appointed a State Convention for the 27th inst. First, for the purpose of a more thorough organization; second, the adoption of rules of action; third, the election of delegates to the National Democratic Convention.

NO CHANGE OF GOVERNORS.—We are reliably informed that no action will be taken at present in regard to the removal of Governor Pierpoint by the military authorities.—Dispatch.

The Montgomery Advertiser says: "The feeling of relief at the removal of Pope manifested itself in the long and loud shouts that followed the announcement of his removal at the theatre Saturday night."

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

THE SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, P. M.

The proceedings in the Supreme Court are attracting intense interest. The impression that the Bench will decide adversely to the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts gains ground.

To-day, Judge Black moved that a day be appointed for hearing ex parte the McCardle case; but Mr. Stanbery objected to arguing the case on behalf of the Government, because he had written opinions sustaining the other side. The matter was deferred, upon Stanbery's suggestion, until the Government could arrange to appear by some other counsel.

This case is that of Col. McCardle, the Editor of Vicksburg, who was imprisoned by Ord. A decision is looked for at an early day, and the impression is very general that the writ will be granted, which would virtually set aside the law.

A second case involves the constitutionality of the law by which Congress authorized the sale of a pirated property and directed the proceeds to be paid into the Treasury; at the same time providing that claimants might, at the end of two years, bring suit for recovery through a Court of claims.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10, P. M.

FROM RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Jan. 10, P. M.

The military officer sent to Halifax, two weeks ago, to quell apprehended disturbances, reports to Headquarters that evidences of a military organization among the blacks were found, and that Geo. Coleman, one of its officers, was arrested. The report also states that the idea among the blacks that they are to have land is now quite exploded.

In the Convention the morning hour was spent by a Conservative member reading from the former editorials of Hunnicutt, to convict him of political inconsistency. The Bill of Rights was discussed to adjournment.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c, in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.
Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1868

[The following ten ling ems beautiful lines were written, quite boy years ago, by the late Mr. St. George Tucker, stepfather to Jno. Randolph, of Roanoke.]

DAYS OF MY YOUTH.

Days of my youth, ye have glided away!
Hairs of my youth, ye are frosted and gray!
Eyes of my youth, your keen sight is no more;
Cheeks of my youth, ye are furrowed all over;
Strength of my youth, all your vigor is gone;
Treasures of my youth, your gay visions have flown!

Days of my youth, I wish not your recall;
Hairs of my youth, I'm content ye should fall;
Eyes of my youth, you much evil have seen;
Cheeks of my youth, bath'd in tears you have been;
Thoughts of my youth, you have led me astray;
Strength of my youth! Why lament your decay?

Days of my age, ye will shortly be past;
Pains of my age, yet awhile ye can last;
Joys of my age, in true wisdom delight;
Eyes of my age, be religion your light;
Thoughts of my age, dread ye not the cold sod;
Hopes of my age,—be ye fixed on your God!

From the Church Union.

SPECTACULAR RELIGION.

One year has rolled away, and I am in Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, again. It is Christmas morning. The church has grown Higher Church wonderfully during the year. I cannot hear that a prayer-meeting has been in it, or that a single soul has been converted according to the early consistent faith of Christians. We do not know of any new birth which has resulted from a year's ministry in this representative church, as the Saviour of men taught Nicodemus of old.—To all intents and purposes the church is as dead as one of the extinguished candlesticks of Asia Minor. I do not see any difference between Holy Trinity and one of our pagodas. I see sap-heads in a profusion of kids, redolent of patchouli and Puseyism, with hair parted in the middle like women.—Others I see with their upper lip not unlike a patent shoe-brush. A third species of the same genus abound that wear quizzers,—Indeed there is my old friend of just one year ago with a V across his nose, looking no wiser, and evidently taking shape rapidly as a churchling. I see the same lasses, with their firkin shaped chignons, their admiration airs, and law me's, at the wonderful exploits of Miss Screamer in solfeggio, and basso profundo, in imitating an earthquake. Even the elder sort of people look stylish, wear airs, are conscious of clothes, make you very uncomfortable by staring at your gum-boat rubbers, which have blessed you and brought you through slush and slums to this American pagoda. Mammas gaze incontinently at the head-gear and toggery of the frizzle curls as they sweep into church. Oh, for a sight of a man of sense in all this throng of sanctimonious snobs. Yet they jam and pack every available nook of this immense temple. What are they here for? Is Christ in all their thoughts? "Jesus Salvator Hominum" looks down upon them from the little white banner. Jesus the Savior of men. Saved from what? from gaiety and show; saved from vanity and worldliness; saved from prodigality and folly. Where is the sense of going to China to preach Christianity? Let Christians save their passage-money.—See here, you sixty missionaries, the American Board, I believe they call it, are about to send to China to convert my people. Paganism is at your own doors. I will find room for them, every one of them, in New York and Brooklyn. Not in grog shops or gambling saloons; not even in the streets, but in the churches. Let one come here into Holy Trinity now. Let him preach a sermon upon the uses of a spire costing nearly $100,000. Let him speak to the people of their devotion to fashion, balls, parties, operas, wine, pleasure and gaiety. Let him wake them with a voice of thunder in their sins and shallow thoughtlessness. Let him silence the warblers that work their evil by songs merely artistic. Let him tear the gauze and tinsel from a veiled heathen, in ritual, in bowing at the name of Jesus, when the heart hath not yet apprehended the meaning of a word of its teachings, in glitter of plate and service over words, "God with us," as if he was there bodily. Let him speak plain words of wisdom and rebuke, to priest and like people. What a field for labor Let him dare accost one of these youths that have come here to hear a concert in the words of the Nazarene, "One thing thou lackest," and tell what it is. Where would such a missionary find himself? Would the persecutions of early Christians compare with what he would suffer? Be his voice never so silvery, his learning never so profound, his eloquence never so powerful, methinks I see the vestry of Holy Trinity looking for such a man to fill the place of the present rector when a mitre shall be placed on his head. While I was there musing, the choir struck up the following intelligent and exceedingly appropriate anthem: Soprano: Blow, blow, blow, blow, blow. Tenor: Blow, blow, blow, blow, blow. Second soprano: Blow, blow, blow, blow, blow. Basso profundo: Blow, blow, blow, blow, oh, oh-h-h-h it h-h-h, wo, wo, wo, wo, wo, wo, wo, blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up. Soprano: Blow up, blow up, blow up. Tenor and basso alternatively: Blow—up, blow—up, up—blow, ow, up, oh, up, ow, wow, blow-w-w-w, blow up, blow up. Soprano alone: Blow up, up, up, up, blow up, blow up. Alto: Blow up, blow, wow, ow, ow, blo, ow, up. All: Bow up s, up, blo-ow, s up, blo—s, up, tump—blo, s tump, tump, tump, pit, pit, blow pit, up, tump, pit, ow, oh, blo, tump, pump, bump, blownup, pit, up, blow, bump, bump, bump, bump, up, blow, s bump, blow, tump, s up, pit blow, tump - - - - - - - - - ow, ow, ow, ow, blow. All again, with redoubled vigor: Blow up, bump, in Zi, Zi, up, blow, Zi, on, blow up a trumpet in Zion, etc., ad libitum. 'American Paganism, what rapid strides it is making. How does it build high its towers, and paint, and gauze and glitter its ceremonies. Chinese gauze, and [illegible] hurdygurdies, village chiravins are [illegible] eclipsed. Show, clatter, and anything to strike wonder is the substitute for the old Gospel. Verily, Paganism grows space, and next Christmas I may have more to show of the growth of Ritualism and spectacular religion.

NEW ARRANGEMENT
FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:
A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

General Orders No. 144.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.
